Dear Mr. Sisco:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey to speak to the Downtown Kiwanis Club of West Palm Beach.

Mr. Casey has asked me to convey his regrets. Due to official duties and tentative travel plans, he is unable to accept your invitation. He enjoyed speaking to the Sons of the American Revolution banquet last February and sends his regards.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Dear

Well here is another request to you for the speaking services of the Director. I must emphasize once again how much the members of the SAR and myself enjoyed being with him last February at the Sons of the American Revolution banquet.

However, at this point I write to you as the program chairman of the Downtown Kiwanis Club of West Palm Beach. Our group is composed of approximately 200 community leaders. These members of the Downtown Kiwanis Club are the arbiters in our community, both politically and in business. It is a different type of an audience than the Director spoke to last year, but one that would welcome him just as keenly. Although I have planned the programs through August 1st, I would be very willing to transfer any other speaker in order to have the Director speak to us in this most important election year.

The Kiwanis Club meets every Wednesday at noon in the Helen Wilkes Hotel at 1st and Flagler Streets in West Palm Beach. If it would be possible to let me know a little in advance, and if the Director would like it, we would provide publicity for his speech. However, if on the other hand the Director would wish absolutely no publicity, obviously, we will respect his wishes.

I would hope that the Director will be able to visit the Palm Beaches this season and accept this invitation. Also, I would hope that the Director will once again lead the President's successful re-election campaign, and certainly if there is anything I can do for the Director or the President, I would be most happy to do so.

My best wishes for a prosperous New Year to both you, the Director, Mrs. Casey, and Bernadette.

I am sincerely yours,

Thomas E. Sisco, II
